Several German parties are at present studying colonization projects; some have gone up to Paraguay, others to Misiones and to various parts of the country. These gentlemen will draw up reports to be sent to Germany, where this country is growing in favor. One hundred thousand Germans settled on the Rio Negro would transform this country.

Mr. T. Eastman has been named President of the Bucoo Tramway in Montevideo.

Farmers in the Banda Oriental complain much of the rainy season. The "chacareros" have been unable to sow cereals up to the present.

the rains in the Banda Oriental have been as heavy as in this Province.

The British barquo Florida arrived on the 14th May in Falmouth after a very stormy passage, and having suffered much damage.

On Saturday it blew a stiff gale in the continental harbor; shipping was at a standstill, and communication with the steamers as impossible.
